

South Mountain Community College

Storytelling Program Course Offerings Fall 2007

Three-Credit Courses:

EDU 292 Section 2525 HUM 292 Section 2009 STO 292 Section 2531	The Art of Storytelling This class meets: 8/21 – 12/11.	TR 11:00am –12:15pm in PAC 739 Liz Warren, Instructor
EDU 292 Section 2223 HUM 292 Section 2529 STO 292 Section 2109	The Art of Storytelling This class meets: 8/20 – 12/10	MW 11:00am –12:15pm in PAC 740 LynnAnn Wojciechowicz, Instructor
EDU 292 Section 2535 HUM 292 Section 2545 STO 292 Section 2575	The Art of Storytelling Late-start class meets at the Guadalupe Center in Room 108: 9/4 – 12/13.	TR 2 – 3:30pm at Guadalupe Center Angela Giron, Instructor
EDU 292 Section 6379 HUM 292 Section 6377 STO 292 Section 6381	The Art of Storytelling This class meets 16 weeks: 8/20 – 12/06.	M 6:00 – 8:30pm in PAC 740 Doug Bland, Instructor
EDU 292 Section 6515 HUM 292 Section 6517 STO 292 Section 6513	The Art of Storytelling Late-start class meets at the HCLC in Room 209: 8/28 – 12/11.	T 6 – 8:30pm at Horizon Learning Center Carol Knarr, Instructor
EDU 292 Section 7003 HUM 292 Section 7035 STO 292 Section 7007	The Art of Storytelling This class meets in Laveen, Cheatham Elementary School, Room 1: 8/22 – 12/12.	W 6 – 8:30pm at Cheatham Elementary Penny Morningstar, Instructor
EDU 292 Section 6007 HUM 292 Section 6009 STO 292 Section 6005	The Art of Storytelling [This class meets the last 8 weeks of the semester: Oct. 16 – Dec. 6.]	TR 6:30 – 9pm in PAC 739 (2nd Half Semester) Janet Means, Instructor

Note: EDU 292, HUM 292, and STO 292 are the same course

In this course, students will learn to prepare and perform stories; to incorporate various techniques to enhance telling; to develop an awareness of resources, materials, and philosophies of storytelling; and to develop a personal style and repertoire for storytelling.

EDU 294 Section 2561 ENH 294 Section 2563 STO 294 Section 2565	Multicultural Folktales This class meets: 8/20 – 12/10	MW 9:30 – 10:45am in PAC 739 Liz Warren, Instructor
EDU 294 Section 6739 ENH 294 Section 6233 STO 294 Section 6579	Multicultural Folktales This class meets: 8/22 – 12/12	Wed. 6 – 8:30pm in PAC 739 Shelle Hawn, Instructor

Note: EDU 294, ENH 294, and STO 294 are the same course.

The emphasis in Multicultural Folktales is on oral folktales. Students have the opportunity to broaden their awareness of the types of folk literature and systems of classifying folktales.

STO 293 Section 6015	Storytelling II Prerequisite: EDU/ENH/STO 292 The Art of Storytelling	Thurs. 6:00 – 9:05 in PAC 740 (13 weeks) LynnAnn Wojciechowicz, Instructor This class meets 13 weeks: 8/31 – 11/30.
----------------------	--	---

Students in this course will have opportunities to expand their storytelling skills and gain a deeper appreciation of storytelling and its applications.

South Mountain Community College

Storytelling Program Course Offerings Fall 2007

STO 282AC Section 2599 Volunteerism in Education (Storytelling Practicum) TBA
Prerequisite: Permission of the Instructor LynnAnn Wojciechowicz, Instructor
Students interested in this Independent Study course should contact LynnAnn Wojciechowicz at 602-243-8022.
This course should be the last class taken for the Program in Storytelling. As the word "practicum" suggests, students will be practicing storytelling to different audiences in a variety of settings.

EDU 202 Section 5773 Bilingual Storytelling T 4 – 6:30pm in PAC 740
STO 202 Section 5771 This class meets: 8/21 – 12/14 Marilyn Torres, Instructor
This class focuses on researching, developing, crafting, and telling bilingual stories in a variety of contexts and venues, including the classroom.

STO 286 Section 8008 Using Storytelling in a Variety of Settings W 6 – 9:05 in PAC 740
This class meets 13 weeks: 8/30 – 11/22 LynnAnn Wojciechowicz, Instructor
This class focuses on the application of storytelling and storytelling activities in the world of health care, business, parks, museums, hospitals, and education.

STO 297 Section 9295 Creating & Telling Personal Stories T 6:40 – 9:10pm in PAC 740
This class meets: 8/21 – 12/11. Liz Warren, Instructor
Students in this course will explore the art and craft of finding, developing, and telling personal stories.

STO 298AC Section 6126 Special Projects: Epic Storytelling M 6 – 8:30pm in LA 330
This class meets: 8/21 – 12/11 Liz Warren, Instructor
Students in this course will research and develop epic storytelling programs.

ENH 251 Section 2579 Mythology TR 9:30 – 10:45am in PAC 739
This class meets: 8/22 – 12/12 Liz Warren, Instructor

ENH 251 Section 6163 Mythology Mon. 6 – 8:30pm in PAC 739
This class meets: 8/21 – 12/11 Shelle Hawn, Instructor
The role of the oral tradition and storytelling in creating and preserving the mythologies of the world is a primary emphasis of this class. As students study, create, and hear mythic stories throughout the semester, they participate in the richness of our human heritage.

HUM 260 Section 2589 Intercultural Perspectives MW 9:30 – 10:45am in PAC 740
This class meets: 8/21 – 12/11 LynnAnn Wojciechowicz, Instructor
This course deals the historical value of the arts in Mexican American, African American, and Native American Indian cultures.

One-Credit Courses:

EDU 283AA Section 1616 Using Storytelling in Educational Settings Sat. 9am – 2pm PAC 740
STO 289AA Section 6011 This class meets three Saturdays: 9/22, 9/29 & 10/13. Carol Knarr, Instructor
This course provides opportunities to explore the various ways storytelling can be used in classroom settings.

STO 289AB Section 6115 Using Storytelling in Business Settings Tues. 6 – 9pm in PAC 739
This class meets 5 times: 8/28 – 9/25. Doug Bland, Instructor
This course provides opportunities to explore ways storytelling can be used in business and organizational settings.

STO 291AA Section 2182 Storytelling Circles Fri. 10am – 12:15pm in PAC 740
Prerequisite: EDU/HUM/STO 292 or Permission of Instructor Janet Means, Instructor
This class meets seven times over eight weeks: 10/19 – 12/7.
This course provides an opportunity for storytellers to workshop stories in a non-threatening environment and to get the feedback they desire. (This course may be repeated three times for the Program in Storytelling elective credit.)

For information regarding the Program in Storytelling or any of our classes, please call LynnAnn Wojciechowicz (602) 243-8022 or check our ePortfolio: <http://eport.maricopa.edu/storytelling>